CONFEDERATES PLAN

THIS SIZE.

Will Meet in Capital for First Time Next May-Thousands Expected.

May 24, 25, and 26 have been announced at dates for the first reunion and review of Confederate veterans of the country ever been held in the National Capital.

The announcement was made by Gen. George P. Harrison, commander-inchief of the United Confederate Veterans' Association, at a meeting of Camp 171, hid last night at Confederate Hemorial Hall.

The meeting was attended by Confederate veterans and delegations from all the affiliated bodies who have been interested in plans for the reunion. General Harrison explained the scope of the affair so far as the veterans themselves were concerned. He said there would be at least 5,000 veterans in attendance as delegates, with, of course, several times that number of visitors and guesta and many times that number of relatives, friends and excursionists.

Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed conditions of the money or stock mar-kets. First deed of trust notes (first mort-gages), well secured on real estate in the District of Columbia, constitute "gilt-edge" investments, and they do not depend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or cor-porations for their stability.
